-Students who are observed displaying the Explorer Expectations are often acknowledged with an Explorer Expectation Ticket (seen above). Students then place their collected tickets into a box in the cafeteria.

-Once a week a drawing is done at school and a winner from each grade earns a prize. These are things such as gift cards, candy, school water bottles, t-shirts and other items.

-Teacher's also send the names of students in to the PBIS coach to be included in a monthly drawing for students who are being acknowledge for exceptional explorer behavior.

-Visual reminders of the Explorer Expectations are posted around the school to help students remember what is expected.
